ACTION OF THE SENATE

The Democrats Don't Know Just What to Do With the Separate Bills.

TO SIGN OR NOT TO SIGN

Probably Cleveland Will Not Attach His Name to the Tariff Act—Effect of Its Passage on Business.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The democratic leaders of the senate have occupied a considerable portion of the day in trying to determine what course to pursue with reference to the supplemental tariff bills. The democratic steering committee was in session two hours after the senate adjourned, trying to determine upon the most advisable policy under the circumstances, and previous to the meeting, the conservative senators had a conference on the same subject. It is understood that the conservative advocates the reference of the bills to the finance committee, while the steering committee is apparently somewhat divided on the question. Apparently all indicate, however, that a large majority of the democratic senators would like to have the bills passed if they could feel assured that their passage would not reduce the government revenues to too great an extent. Interest in these bills, as in the main tariff bill is in the sugar question and it is to the free sugar bill that they are giving their personal attention. There is an evident tendency on the part of the majority of the democratic senators towards amending the sugar bill so as to make it a revenue bill, pure and simple, and it is now the programme of the democratic leaders to amend the bill if there should prove to be prospects of its becoming a law, reducing duty, making it uniform and striking off the differential on refined sugar. The reduction would depend upon the figures which the treasury department will furnish as to the amount of revenue it will be necessary to secure from sugar under the new tariff. It would appear that so far the only definite arrangement is for a discussion of the bills at tomorrow's session if it be impossible in the face of a single objection to force the bills to a third reading tomorrow, and it is probable that a large part of the day will be given up to a debate on the motion to refer to the committee. This will serve to develop the real intentions of the republicans towards the bills, and also possibly develop what differences there may be in the democratic party.

BUSINESS PICKING UP.

Cleveland May Allow the Bill to Become a Law Without Signing It.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—As the house of representatives adjourned until Wednesday the tariff bill cannot be sent to the white house until tomorrow. It will be enrolled and carefully compared to-day and to-morrow and will receive the signatures of Speaker Crisp and Vice President Stevenson. Great pressure will be brought to bear on the president to induce him to sign the bill, but the statements made by the associated press yesterday that it is his intention to let the bill become a law without his signature, can be reiterated to-day. A member of the cabinet said to-day that if the president should conclude to affix his signature to the bill it would be accompanied by a statement of his reasons.

Neither the democratic steering committee of the senate nor the finance committee has met, consequently there has been no official action in regard to a supplemental tariff bill. The majority of the republican steering committee favor a postponement of the consideration of these bills, especially the free sugar bill. If it should be forced to an issue the republicans would divide on it, and there would be a possibility of its becoming a law.

The republican steering committee decided against raising the question of whether the house legally had the senate tariff bill in its possession, and in favor of referring the supplemental house bills to the finance committee. It is believed a quorum would disappear before they could be reported from the committee.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Operators on the stock exchange enjoyed the liveliest day they have had in a long time. Blocks of thousands of shares changed hands rapidly amid much excitement. Prices moved up and down so smartly that the brokers had difficulty in executing the orders given "at limit." All this was the direct result of the passage of the tariff bill.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 14.—The passage of the tariff bill has already made itself felt here by a marked revival in business. Stocks in all lines of manufacture had been reduced to a minimum, especially iron, steel and glass. To-day large orders were received by local manufacturers and more are expected. It is asserted that a slight reduction in wages will be necessary in the case of glass workers and tin plate men and the workmen in some branches of the iron and steel trade, but the scales generally allow for reductions to fit the tariff changes.

TWO MORE MEN PARDONED.

The Prison Board Will Go to Billings—Suits in the United States Court.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.
HELENA, Mont., Aug. 14.—David E. Spincer and Thomas McCormick were pardoned to-day by the board of pardons. Spincer is liberated on the condition that he leaves Montana so that he will not become a burden upon any community in the state. Dr. Minhall certifies that he is far advanced in consumption. Spincer wants to return to his boyhood home in Texas to die. He was convicted of shooting Jim Wall at Fort Benton, in February, 1892, with intent to kill. The bullet grazed Wall's head. Many prominent citizens, the prosecuting attorney, seven jurors, Judge DuBois and Wall joined in the petition for Spincer's pardon. He was sentenced for seven years. His friends have agreed to take care of him and furnish transportation to Texas.

McCormick was sent up for eight years on a conviction of assault to commit murder, in Meagher county on May 1, 1891.

McCormick presented an order for $5 to George Sewell, manager of the Butte & Montana Commercial company at Sheep Creek, which Sewell refused to pay. There were hot words and McCormick called Sewell a liar. The latter knocked McCormick down and McCormick shot him in the hip. Prosecuting Attorney M. B. Smith said there was always some doubt in his mind about the conviction being right. The petition states that McCormick was without means and that the court appointed two young and inexperienced lawyers to defend him, and that practically the case went by default. Sewell asked for McCormick's release, as did some Kentucky people and citizens of Meagher county.

The state board of prison commissioners are arranging to make a visit to Billings and look into the construction of the new penitentiary.

The following suits have been commenced in the United States court: Levi S. Provin, a real estate and insurance agent of Grand Rapids, Mich. versus A. W. Chadbourne, who had coaches and carriages for hire in the National Park in August, 1891. Provin alleges that the vehicle in which he and his wife were riding rolled down an embankment near the Mud geysers, through the carelessness of the driver and that one of Mrs. Provin's legs was broken in two places. He asks for $3,000 damages. Joseph A. Wood of Jefferson county sues William Wood to quiet title to the Mammoth lodge claim on Eagle gulch in Jefferson county; United States versus Jacob Redding and Harry Gassert, to recover $5,000 for timber cut on the public domain on Clark's Fork in Park county; United States versus Mrs. Ruby A. Walker and J. C. Walker, to recover $5,500 for timber cut on the public domain in Fergus county; P. H. and F. M. Boes company of Indiana versus Boston & Montana Consolidated Copper and Silver Mining company, for $3,384 for pumps and blowers furnished defendant; John W. Lincoln of Taunton, Mass. versus Frederick R. Griffith, to foreclose a mortgage for $2,000 on 480 acres of land in Missoula county, and Marcus Daly is made a defendant on account of his interest in the land.

Articles of incorporation of the Missoula Publishing company were filed to-day with the secretary of state; capital stock, $50,000. The incorporators are C. B. Miller, George E. Boos, A. B. Cook.

FITZ WANTS TO MEET JIM.

Jim Tells Fitz to Put Up, and Fitz Says Jim Is a Coward, See?

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Police Captain Glor of Newark, who is Fitzsimmons' backer, received the following telegram from William A. Scholl of the Olympic club of New Orleans:

Have wired Pugilist Corbett at Asbury Park, offering him a purse of $20,000 to meet Fitzsimmons, the winner to take all.

Fitzsimmons has accepted the Olympic club proposition and Captain Glor set about arranging for an interview with Corbett at Asbury Park to take place within a few days. The news that Fitzsimmons has accepted an offer to fight in New Orleans was telegraphed Jim this evening and the following answer came:

I never saw the color of Fitzsimmons' money. Why does he not come out like a man and issue a challenge to the world, backed by cash, and if so one accepts it, then it is my duty to do so. "I don't believe Corbett will agree to fight Fitz," said Pugilist Peter Jackson when told of the movement to bring about a meeting between the men. "Jim wants to be an actor and he won't be dragged into any more fights if he can help himself. I came all the way from San Francisco to arrange a fight with Corbett, and see how he has treated me. I have not been treated like a man. Corbett has been very unfair."

Jackson said as to himself he was making no plans for the future. He has fully decided to go to Europe.

Y., Aug. 14.—Features of the day was Foster memorial handicap in which Lampighter, Yo Tambien and Ducat entered, and the Melbourne stud stakes, for which Lisack and Prince of Monaco had been colored on the card. The men freely admitted that the strike is broken. For weeks the strikers have been on the verge of starvation and with the announcement that the company would begin evictions they weakened.

NEW DEAL WITH CHINA

Laborers Shut Out for Ten Years Except Under Certain Conditions.

EACH COUNTRY'S RIGHTS

The Chinese Government May Require American Residents to Register Aliens Same—Mongolians May Still Visit Us.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The treaty with China which was ratified by the action of the senate prohibits the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States for the next 10 years upon conditions specified. The restriction is not to apply to the return of such laborers as have lawful wives, children or parents in this country, or who have property here to the value of $1,000, or debts equal to that amount due them. A departing Chinaman is to secure before leaving a certificate from the collector of customs of the district from which he leaves, testifying to the fact that he has dealt with the collector a description of his family, property or credit, and this certificate is to entitle him to return to the United States. In case the description proves to be false, the right to return shall be forfeited. It is to be exercised within one year, but in exceptional cases may be extended for another year.

It is especially agreed that the provisions of this treaty shall not affect the rights of Chinese subjects, teachers, students, merchants or travelers for curiosity or pleasure, but not laborers, coming to the United States and residing therein. To entitle such Chinese subjects to admission they must produce a certificate from their government or the government where they last resided, and the diplomatic or consular representative of the United States in the country or port whence they departed. It is also agreed that Chinese laborers shall continue to enjoy the privilege of transit across the territory of the United States in the course of their journey to and from other countries, subject to such regulations by the government of the United States as may be necessary to prevent such privilege of transit being abused. The Chinese government waives all objection to the requirement of the United States law that Chinese residents be registered and reciprocally this government consents that China shall make the same requirement of Americans residing in China.

While the treaty is made for the period of only 10 years, it is provided that it may be extended for another like term of years unless either country shall give notice six months before the expiration of the 10-year limitation of a desire to terminate it. The treaty now requires the ratification of China, but it is presumed that the minister here is fully empowered by his government to act for it in this matter.

IN THE SENATE.

Veto Protections Against Its Being Called the "Sugar Tariff Bill."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—There was but a scattering of senators present to-day when the vice president called the senate to order. At 12:15 the reading of the journal was concluded. A messenger from the house informed the senate that the house passed bills placing coal, iron ore, barbed wire and sugar on the free list, in which it asked the concurrence of the senate. Manderson objected to the second reading of the bill.

Hill gave notice of an amendment repealing all income taxes. The bill will come up to-morrow. Hale introduced a resolution for the printing of 50,000 copies of house bill No. 4284, known as the "sugar tariff bill." Vest protested against this bill. Hale replied that he simply referred to it by the name by which it would be known hereafter. Vest questioned Hale's right to say what would be the popular designation of the bill and declared it an outrage upon the senate. The resolution went over.

MILITIA STILL ON THE GROUND

The Troops Will Not Be Taken From South Omaha Just Yet.

OMAHA, Aug. 14.—It is now a settled fact that the entire militia will not be taken away from South Omaha until such time as the officers of the guards and the citizens who have interests here are satisfied that there is no further danger of an outbreak among the strikers. General Colby said: "This will not interfere with the arrangements already made for the state encampment. Two or more companies will be retained. There is a bitter feeling against the guards that is gradually spreading and there is liable to be trouble if the troops are retained here much longer. The general belief is that the strikers will not create any disturbances as long as the guards are kept." Many of the old men returned to work to-day and more are expected to-morrow.

FLORIDA DEMOCRATS.

The Free Coinage Question Exciting a Hot Discussion.

DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 14.—The democratic state convention met here to-day at noon. Judge J. R. Fleming, of San Antonio, was chosen temporary chairman by acclamation. Committees on permanent organization and platform were appointed after which the convention took a recess. The committee on platform is having a red hot time of it and will report to-night. The free silver question is producing much bitterness in the convention and there is a split it will be on this issue. When the convention reassembled the permanent speeches were made, counseling harmony. A recess taken until to-morrow morning.

Professional Football.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—At the Fifth Avenue hotel this afternoon the National Football league was organized under the name of the American Professional Football Players. The league was organized by the election of A. A. Irwin of Philadelphia, president, and George Stackhouse of New York, secretary. The season will open Oct. 1 and will continue until July 1, 1895, inclusive. Each team will play five games in the different cities in the league. During the season also, the professional football club of Sunderland, England, will visit this country and play a series of exhibition games in conjunction with the league.

PICKED HER UP FOR FOR DEAD.

Mrs. Fisher Found Lying Unconscious in Her Cellar.

BUTTE, Aug. 14.—Richard Fisher went to his home, No. 106 West Gold street, this evening for supper and found his wife brutally engaged getting supper, but it was not quite ready, so he took the children out for a walk for a few minutes. When they got back to the house supper was on the table but Mrs. Fisher was not to be seen. They ate supper, thinking Mrs. Fisher had gone out to one of the neighbors. After supper Mr. Fisher noticed the cellar door open and went down there. He lit a match and saw his wife lying prostrate on the ground. He aroused the neighbors. The woman was carried up stairs. She was cold and the neighbors pronounced her dead. Physicians were called, and after two hours work she revived. She is not yet considered out of danger, but is improving. Failure or weakness of the heart is assigned for the trouble.

Prince and Schock Coming.

BUTTE, Aug. 14.—Jack Prince, the famous bicycle record breaker, writes that he will be in Butte shortly. He will be accompanied by the long-distance bicycle champion, Albert Schock, and they will no doubt give an exhibition of their powers before leaving the city. Prince has a record of 1,043 miles in 72 hours and has pedaled a mile in 1:59. He was the first man in the world to challenge and race against a horse. His hardest race was with the famous long-distance trotting horse Controller for $1,000 a side, 20 miles. Prince won in the fast time of 50 minutes and 10 seconds.

He was then brought to jail in this city under a heavy guard. To-night threats of lynching are heard on all sides and there is a possibility that the threats will be carried out before morning.

A Woman in the Case.

KEARNEY, Neb., Aug. 14.—B. C. Chase of California committed suicide at the Windsor hotel last evening by cutting his throat with a four inch sheath knife. He came here 10 days ago and has been looking for a ranch. He was apparently in good circumstances and was 23 years old, and never acted deranged. On Saturday a young woman came from the West, whom he registered as his wife. She was down town when he committed suicide. The coroner's jury is taking testimony behind closed doors.

CRAZY AS A BED BUG

Plunger Partridge Goes Daft as the Result of Alcoholism.

SIMPLY A RAVING MANIAC

Taken to a Home for Inebriates He Creates a Scene of Terrible Violence and Comes Near Killing His Guards.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Strapped down to his bed, imprisoned by barred windows and a locked door, in a barren room on the fourth floor of the Washington home, "Plunger" Ed Partridge, who yesterday threw the board of trade into a turmoil by fighting with a doorkeeper, is undergoing the most rigorous treatment for alcoholism. He was brought to the home yesterday by his son, who was assisted by several friends. The nervous speculator had to be conveyed to the home in a closed carriage and was placed in charge of the doctors only by main force. He became violent when he was being searched preparatory to his protracted stay, and it required four attendants to carry him up stairs and install him in one of the cell rooms which are reserved for the worst patients.

Partridge is one of the most prominent men on the Chicago board of trade. For months he has been on the bear side of the wheat market and his winnings on "change" last year are said to reach into seven figures. A few days ago he appeared on the floor in an unsteady condition and threw money broadcast about the pit, raising such an uproar that he was suspended for 60 days. Yesterday he attempted to go on the floor and after a fierce fight with a doorkeeper was finally carried from the building.

At Washington Home for Inebriates, Mr. Partridge succeeded in creating as much excitement among the inmates as he did on "change" yesterday. Immediately upon his arrival he was handcuffed and placed in a box-like apartment. When the physicians and guards left him, however, he put at naught their efforts to tie his hands and feet. One little article on his person overlooked by the custodians in searching him, was a large locket attached to his watch chain. When the guards left him he managed to squirm around so as to reach the locket. This contained a small, sharp knife, with which he proceeded to cut his bonds. He soon parted the leather handcuffs and next broke the leather strap tied around his feet. Partridge jumped up to his window and yelled down at the crowd below:

"I'm Ed Partridge, you all know me. They are trying to rob or kill me. I'll give $500 to any man who will get my lawyer. For God's sake help me."

As he continued his entreaties he got more and more excited and said: "If none of you will get my lawyer for $500, I'll give you $500, $750, $1,000. Hurry up for the love of heaven. They are going to kill me. I'll give anyone half my fortune if he'll get my lawyer."

The attention of the guards was attracted by his fearful yelling and two of them went to the plunger's room to subdue him. He stood with a heavy wooden chair uplifted in his hands. As the door opened and the head of the first guard approached he brought his weapon down with a crash. The guard dodged just in time to escape the blow.

The attendants say Partridge is the worst case they ever handled and they were much relieved when he had finally been strapped. Before noon his only demonstrations were a few yells and a series of war whoops which could be distinctly heard all over the house. This stopped and he then mumbled and talked to himself and then fell into a sort of violent stupor and went to sleep.

This afternoon J. E. Deakin appeared before Judge Dunn with a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to compel Summerfield, manager of the Washington home, to produce Partridge in court. The petition recited that the noted board-of-trade plunger was being held a prisoner in the Washington home against his will. Judge Dunn granted the writ and made it returnable at 9:30 o'clock to-morrow evening.

A Chicago Alderman's Present.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—City Alderman John Coughlan received by mail to-day an infernal machine labeled photographs, wrapped so as to appear like a package of cardboard. The machine was evidently intended to explode when opened, but failed to do so, and when examined by the city chemist was pronounced very dangerous. Alderman Coughlan has been prominent in a crusade against opium joints and believes the receipt of the infernal machine is the result of his activity against the proprietors of these joints.

Later—On further investigation the bomb proved to be formed of cardboard, smeared with glue, sand, camphor and small particles of coal. It is supposed it was sent to Alderman Coughlan as a joke.

The Salsanilla Wins.

RYE, Isle of Wight, Aug. 14.—The Salsanilla won the race to-day for the vice commodore's cup, under the auspices of the Royal Victoria Yacht club. The Vigilant did not start. The Salsanilla's lead over the Britannia never fell below two minutes and was increased to four at the finish. The course of 59 miles was covered in the remarkable time of over 12 miles an hour. The following from Mr. Gould was received: "The Vigilant is unable to sail to-day as all her rigging has been taken off and has not been stretched properly."

For Another Receiver.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Wheeler H. Peckham, counsel for the reorganization committee of the Santa Fe, has left this city for Topeka, Kansas, to make application for a receiver in the place of J. W. Reinhart, resigned.
